

Deed of Assignment

About this form

To change the legal ownership of a life assurance policy by way of gift only (gift assignment from single assignor to joint assignees).

Please use black ink and write in CAPITAL LETTERS or tick as appropriate.

Important: This deed is for the consideration of solicitors acting for the assignor/assignees. It should only be used after independent professional advice has been taken. Prudential cannot accept any responsibility for its use. If it is not suitable for use in its present form, a separate deed should be drawn up to cover the precise needs of the assignor/assignees.

This form should not be amended in any way.

- › If regular withdrawals and Ongoing Adviser Charges are being taken from a bond, any change in ownership will result in the suspension of such payments until we receive a written request from the new owners for them to resume, or for a new arrangement to be set up.
- › The assignment includes no guarantee of the assignor's title to the policy. If such a guarantee is intended or required to be given, legal advice should be sought.
- › Independent advice should be sought from a solicitor, financial advisor or accountant on the tax implications of the assignment of a life policy. In particular, the assignment of a regular premium policy may affect its tax status.
- › This form is not suitable for use by a personal representative, Executor or a Trustee.
- › This form cannot be used for an assignment to a minor or minors.
- › This form cannot be used to implement a financial arrangement ordered or approved by a court.

Please refer to the information above, before considering the use of this assignment wording.

Deed of assignment – (assignment from single assignor to joint assignees)

Important Note

Where your bond/plan has a number of separate identical policies (individual segments) and the assignment is to relate to only one or more policies, not the whole bond/plan, please record only the policies to be assigned within the Policy(ies) Number(ed) section below. If for example you record 123456A 000 this will result in only one policy being assigned. 123456A 000 – 009 will result in 10 policies being assigned. If the assignment is for the whole bond/plan, please record the full bond/plan number for example 123456A 000 – 019.
