About this form

Please return this form to Prudential International Assurance plc, Stirling FK9 4UE.

Your financial adviser may be able to send your application to us on a secure website.

If you're applying on, or after, 1 January 2018, before you invest in this product you should read our Key Information Document, relevant Investment Option Document(s) or the Fund Managers own Key Investor Information Document(s) as appropriate. These include important information which may help you make up your mind.

You can find the latest Key Information Document and relevant Investment Option Document(s) for this product on our website at pru.co.uk/pro-docs/POPB

For products closed before 1 January 2018, but can still be topped up, we don't provide these documents. So please see your Key Features Document for more information.

Important information

This form can only be used for additional investments into the Prudential Onshore Portfolio Bond.

You can select withdrawals (regular and/or one-off) from your Bond including Adviser Charges (Ongoing and/or Ad hoc). If you do so then you may be liable to an Income Tax charge and it may affect your entitlement to personal income tax allowances and/or certain tax credits (see the Key Features Document for details).

Ongoing Adviser Charges. If you have already asked for Ongoing Adviser Charges to be deducted from your Bond, and have expressed them as a percentage of the full value of your Bond or a percentage of the total investment, this instruction will automatically apply to your additional investment and no further action is needed by you.

If you have asked for Ongoing Adviser Charges to be deducted and expressed them as a £ amount, they will continue at the current level and no further action is needed by you.

If you want to make any changes to your Ongoing Adviser Charges at this time, please instruct your Platform Provider accordingly.

If you have any questions when completing this application please speak to your financial adviser or call us on 0800 000 000. Your financial adviser may charge you for any advice given.

You can get a copy of this form from your financial adviser, from pru.co.uk or you can call us on 0800 000 000.

Please ensure you complete all the boxes in this Part.

Note: Please make sure the amount shown at A) minus the amount shown at B) is equal to the amount shown at C). If there is any discrepancy, we will pay the amount specified at B) to your adviser and we will invest the net amount of A) minus B) into your Bond.

Adviser Charges Limits

We have limits which set out the maximum level of Adviser Charging which we will facilitate. The maximum level for a Set-up Adviser Charge is 5% of the single premium or £20,000 – whichever is lower.

1. Details of your investment and Set-up Adviser Charge instructions

Name(s) of Bond Owner(s)

Bond number

Platform Client Number

In this Part you tell us how much you want to add to your Bond and if we are to pay any Set-up Adviser Charge to your adviser, on your behalf, for arranging this investment.

If you ask us to pay a Set-up Adviser Charge we will deduct it from your payment and it will not be included in the amount invested.

A. Total amount of additional payment (the amount you're sending to us)

£ minimum £2,500.

B. Set-up Adviser Charge (if any)

£ OR % of additional payment OR NIL (please tick)

C. Amount to be invested (your additional premium) to be divided equally between all the policies in my Prudential Onshore Portfolio Bond.

2. Details of your payment

Telegraphic Transfer/BACS.

GIA. (Platform General Investment Account)

Please provide details of the account from which the payment has been drawn below:

Name of Bank or Building Society

Sort Code

Account Number

Roll number (if applicable)

Account name

SWIFT/BIC (if applicable)

IBAN (if applicable)

We may need additional information (e.g. a certified copy of a bank statement) if payment is being made from an account other than that owned by the Bond Owner or where we can't verify the name on the account provided.

Mandatory field.

3. Taking a regular withdrawal

If you don't currently take, or don't want to commence taking regular withdrawals please go to Part 4.

Part A – Continuing, changing or commencing withdrawals

Continuing withdrawals

Please note: If you're currently taking regular withdrawals and there are no revised instructions shown in the "Commencing or changing withdrawals" section below, your regular withdrawals will continue and:

- if the withdrawals are for variable amounts e.g. a fixed % of the total investment, then the amount will be increased in the future in line with the new additional investment, or
- if the withdrawals are for a fixed amount these will continue unaltered.

Commencing or changing withdrawals

Complete the following only if you want to commence or change an existing withdrawal instruction:

- I/We want to commence withdrawals please complete Part B, C and D OR
- I/We want to change withdrawals please complete Part B and C
(plus D if bank/building society details are also changing)

Part B – The Amount

The following withdrawal limits apply:

- a) The minimum amount for each withdrawal payment, regardless of frequency, is £100.
- b) Withdrawals are taken equally from all the policies in the Bond.
- c) When regular withdrawals commence or change, the amount requested during any 12 month period can't exceed 10% of the premium including additional investments.
- d) Withdrawals are paid in £ Sterling.
- e) Where payments are made by Direct Credit or Telegraphic Transfer and we are unable to verify account ownership, we may need documentation to verify that the account is held in the name(s) of the policyholder(s). This can be provided by submitting a certified copy of a bank statement, or other suitable document, for the account to which funds are to be sent. Payments can't be made until full Bank Account verification is confirmed.
- f) If the total of regular withdrawals, one-off withdrawals taken across all policies in a Bond, any Ongoing and Ad hoc Adviser Charges, in any policy year, exceeds 5% of the amount invested, it will create a Chargeable Event for tax purposes and may produce a liability to income tax above the basic rate, and/or may affect entitlement to personal allowance and certain tax credits. This 5% allowance comes to an end once you have withdrawn 100% of the amount you invested. Please speak to your financial adviser for details. If you are not sure how your withdrawal will be taxed you should speak to your financial adviser before you submit this request.

I/We want to receive £ each year OR % of my/our total investment each year

Part C – Frequency of Payments

Withdrawals should be paid at the following frequency.

- | | | | | | |

5. Declaration

I make payment to Prudential International Assurance plc, UK Branch for my additional investment by the method I have shown in Part 2 and I understand that a copy of this completed application and the terms and conditions are available from the Prudential International on request.

I declare that the information given in this application is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief.

For applications on, or after, 1 January 2018:

I confirm that I have read the Key Information Document, relevant Investment Option Document(s) or the Fund Managers own Key Investor Information Document(s) as appropriate for this product.

Please make cheques payable to: The Prudential International Assurance plc, UK Branch.

All bank/building society "counter" cheques must include reference to the name of the account from which the funds have been withdrawn. For example, "The Prudential International Assurance plc, UK Branch – Re: Your name". An incorrectly completed cheque may require us to return your application which could have an adverse affect on the initial purchase price of your investment.

Adviser Charging

I authorise Prudential International to act upon my instructions regarding the facilitation of Adviser Charges (the "Adviser Charge Instruction") whether specified here now or at any time in future. I agree that with respect to Ongoing and/or Ad hoc Adviser Charges my "Adviser Charge Instruction" will be given to my Platform who will pass on these instructions to Prudential International. Prudential International will then act on such instructions as if they had come directly from me. I understand that Prudential International shall not be required to carry out such instructions (including any permitted by my adviser firm) where they conflict with any applicable law or regulation and/or where they are inconsistent with Prudential's Adviser Charge administration capability.

I understand that where there is a difference between the Adviser Charge Instruction and the Adviser Charges agreed with my adviser firm, Prudential International will only facilitate payment in accordance with my Adviser Charge Instruction.

I confirm that the Adviser Charge specified in my Adviser Charge Instruction is inclusive of any VAT due to my adviser at the prevailing rate from time to time. I understand that if the level of VAT applicable within the Adviser Charge changes (including where previously VAT free Adviser Charges become subject to VAT) Prudential International will only alter my Adviser Charge following a new Adviser Charge Instruction or instruction from my adviser firm which sets out the new level of charges to be deducted.

5. Declaration – continued

I understand that, with the exception of changes in the level of VAT, the Adviser Charge may not be increased without my explicit authority.

I agree that the Adviser Charge may be reduced or stopped by Prudential International or my Platform without my explicit authority.

I agree that where my adviser firm arranges for the services I have agreed with them to be provided by another adviser firm, I authorise Prudential International to amend my Adviser Charge Instructions to pay the Adviser Charges at the existing agreed level to the new adviser firm, except where they conflict with any applicable law, regulation and/or HMRC practice and/or where they are inconsistent with Prudential International's Adviser Charge administration capability.

I confirm that I have discussed with my financial adviser the tax implications of my investment being net of any Set-up Adviser Charges, and also the tax implications of having my Ongoing Adviser Charge and/or any Ad hoc Adviser Charges deducted from the contract. I understand that deduction of any Ongoing Adviser Charge and/or any Ad hoc Adviser Charge will be treated as withdrawal from the Bond. I understand this means that should the combined totals of my withdrawals (be they Adviser Charge deductions, regular and/or one off withdrawals across all policies in the Bond) in any Bond year exceed the 5% tax deferred allowance (see the Key Features Document for details), then I may be liable to an Income Tax Charge. It may also affect my entitlement to personal income tax allowances and/or certain tax credits.

How we use your personal information

We, Prudential International Assurance Plc (PIA), take the privacy and protection of your personal information seriously. PIA will operate as the data controller in respect of the data we collect about you.

So we've set out below information about our processing of your personal information, what rights you have, and how you can get in touch if you want to know more.

When we say personal information, we mean information about you, such as your name, date of birth and contact details. We collect personal information from you that is necessary for us to either provide you with the product or service you've requested or to comply with statutory or contractual requirements. Unfortunately, if you don't provide all of the information we require this may mean we are unable to provide our products and services to you.

Part A – How we use your personal information

We, M&G plc* and our Business Partners, will use the personal information you provide to us, together with other information, for the following purposes:

- the administration of our products and services, including to enable us to perform our obligations to you and to provide any relevant services as discussed with you prior to any purchase of a product or service;
- complying with any regulatory or other legal requirements;
- carrying out checks using agencies such as credit reference agencies, tracing companies, or publicly available information (See Part B for more);
- the provision of customer services – like to reply to a question, or tell you that something's changing;
- automated decision-making or profiling (see Part C for more);
- keeping your information on record and carrying out other internal business administration.

Some of the purposes above are necessary to allow us to perform our contractual obligations to you and to enable us to comply with applicable laws and regulation. We may also rely on legitimate interests or other legal bases in using and sharing your personal information for the purposes described above to improve our products and services. This allows us to explore ways to develop our business and to gain insights into how our products and services are used.

In addition, we M&G plc and our Marketing Partners, will use the personal information you provide to us, together with other information, to send you direct marketing offers by electronic or non-electronic means including by post, where you have consented us to do so. Please see Part G for further details.

Who we share your personal information with and why

We may share your personal information within M&G plc and with our Business Partners, for any of the purposes set out in Part A. If you have a joint policy or investment, the other person may receive your personal information too. If appropriate, we may also pass on your personal information to financial crime prevention agencies, any legal, regulatory or government bodies.

As we, M&G plc, and some of our Business Partners are global companies, we might need to send your personal information to countries that have different data protection laws to the European Economic Area. These transfers will only be to countries in respect of which the European Commission and, where applicable, the UK Government has issued a data protection 'adequacy' decision, or to other countries, such as India or the United States of America, but only where appropriate safeguards have been put in place first. In more limited circumstances, we may also need to rely on a derogation under applicable privacy laws.

If you want to know more about these safeguards – like our use of the European Commission's or UK's Model Clauses which govern the transfer of information outside of the European Economic Area and UK respectively – further information is available on request.

We keep your personal information for a set amount of time

Your personal information will be stored either for as long as you (or your joint policyholder) are our customer, or longer if required by law or as is otherwise necessary. It'll always be in line with our data retention policy.

Part B – Reference checks

For certain products, we may use approved credit reference agencies, tracing companies, financial crime prevention agencies, or publicly available information, to help us to check your identity, as well as to prevent fraud and money laundering; this may include checks on your current or previous addresses. Results of these may be recorded for future reference.

These checks may also be carried out for a joint policy holder or person(s) that you provide personal information on. Should we ever lose contact with you, we may use these agencies to verify your address to help us get back in touch.

Any transfer of your personal information will always be done securely.

Part C – We may use your personal information to make automated decisions or profile you

We, M&G plc, our Business Partners, and our Marketing Partners may use your personal information to make automated decisions affecting you or to conduct other profiling (for example, marketing profiling).

To the extent that we conduct such automated decision making activity, we'll provide you with further information at the appropriate time.

Part D – Use of your sensitive personal information

For certain products or services, we'll need to process your sensitive personal information, such as information relating to health, genetics, biometric identifiers and sexual orientation. To the extent that we need your explicit consent to process this kind of personal information in the manner described in Parts A, B, and C, we will only process such data as provided by your consent.

Part E – You're in control

When it comes to how we use your personal information, you've got the right to:

- request a copy of your personal information for free (we may charge you for this if the request is manifestly unfounded or excessive). We shall respond as soon as reasonably possible and at the latest within 30 calendar days from the date of your request;
- in certain circumstances request that we move your personal information to another organisation if you want us to;
- request that we correct anything that's wrong, or complete any incomplete personal information;
- ask us to delete your personal information if it is no longer needed for the purposes set out in Part A or if there is no other legal basis for the processing;
- limit how we use your personal information or withdraw your consents you have given for the processing of your personal information (including consents to automated decision making);
- object to us using your personal information for direct marketing (including related profiling) or other processing based on legitimate interests;
- complain to a data protection authority or another independent regulator about how we're using it.

If you want to do any of these things, or would like an explanation as regards these rights, we've explained how you can get in touch in the 'Contact Us' section.

If you do need to speak to us, it'll be useful to have to hand that the data controller of your personal information is PIA. PIA has also appointed a Data Protection Officer who can be reached at the details shown in the 'Contact Us' section of this document.

We may monitor or record calls or any other communication we have with you. This will be for training, for security, or to help us check for quality.

Part F – Acting on someone else's behalf?

If you give us personal information about another person (or persons), we'll take that to mean they have appointed and authorised you to act on their behalf. This includes providing consent to:

- our processing of their personal information and sensitive personal information (as we've explained in Parts A, B, C, and D above);
- you getting any data privacy notices on their behalf.

If for any reason you are concerned as to whether you are permitted to provide us with the other person's information, please contact us on the phone number provided in the 'Contact Us' section before sending us anything.

Part G – Direct marketing

From time to time, we, M&G plc, our Business Partners and our Marketing Partners may like to contact you by electronic or non-electronic means with details about products, services and any special offers. Please note that any consent you give will not apply to M&G Investments Group and Prudential UK as they operate their own customer databases.

And if you change your mind, and/or you would like to opt-out of receiving direct marketing, it's easy to let us know. Just contact us at the details noted in the 'Contact Us' section.

Financial Crime (verifying your identity to prevent Fraud & Money Laundering)

To verify your identity and prevent financial crime we may use and share your information with any company within the Prudential Group, with companies who work for us and with other appropriate organisations. We may also search, send your details to, and use information from third party verification service providers and financial crime and credit reference agencies (Third Parties).

This involves checking your details against databases that these Third Parties use. Prudential International and these Third Parties may keep a record of the search, the results of the search, any suspicions of financial crime and the details may be used to assist other companies for verification and identification purposes. This search is not a credit check and your credit rating should be unaffected.

By signing this form you are giving your consent to these activities which will make it easier for you to do business with us and help prevent financial crime. For more information, please write to:
